

Class

Name

Review Test 1 (Units 1-4)

Vocabulary Check Up

A. Write the right word in each blank. There are two extra words.

especially extra donate advance rewarding

1. Giving your time to others is _____.
2. Robots can be _____ helpful for the elderly.
3. You only need a few _____ hours to volunteer.

B. Choose the correct answers.

4. Robots can help a person with a physical _____.
a. challenge b. speech c. crisis
5. You can help _____ books in the library.
a. overcome b. guide c. organize

Comprehension Check Up

C. Read the following passages and choose the correct answers.

[6~8]

① A research study shows that teens who help strangers feel more confident one year later. That means they feel better about themselves. The boost in self-esteem happens because working with people you don't know is a challenge. Volunteering can also make teens feel satisfied. They have to work hard, but they are doing very good things. ② This is because they must meet and talk with new people as part of the work. ③

6. What is the passage mainly talking about?
a. Volunteering is the only to help other people
b. Meeting new people is the best way to volunteer
c. Helping others is a great way to feel good about yourself

7. Which is NOT true about the passage?

- a. Teens feel satisfied helping others.
- b. Teens who volunteer feel more confident.
- c. Teens feel it is easy to work with strangers.

8. What is the best place for the sentence below?

In addition, volunteering helps teens feel more connected with other people.

- a. ①
- b. ②
- c. ③

[9~11]

Robots are a part of daily life and ① (provide / let / donate) many services. Robots are able to do a(n) ② (batter / variety / extra) of jobs that people once did. Robots work in factories, cars, and restaurants. Robots can teach valuable lessons, too.

They can ③ (organize / quit / guide) a person's movement and help them practice important body motions. Some people have difficulties with social skills. Robots can teach them how to interact with people. As robots become more common, people will have to do new and different jobs.

9. What can robots teach people?

- a. Valuable lessons
- b. Many services
- c. New jobs

10. How can robots help people who have difficulties with social skills?

- a. They can teach new and different jobs.
- b. They can teach important body motions.
- c. They can teach them how to interact with people.

11. What is the correct answer for each number? Choose the best answer.

- ① a. provide b. let c. donate
- ② a. battle b. variety c. extra
- ③ a. organize b. quit c. guide

D. Read the following passages and write the correct answers.

[12~13]

Terry Fox was a Canadian. He loved playing sports, but he got cancer in his leg. Doctors had to cut his leg off. Terry didn't let that stop him. He decided to run across Canada to raise money for cancer research. ① (inspired / Marathon / many / of / Hope / His / people.) Every year, people around the world do the Terry Fox Run in memory of him.

12. Why did Terry Fox run across Canada?

13. Unscramble sentence ①.

[14~15]

Vinny was only five when he started growing his hair for charity. He wanted to make a wig for a child fighting cancer. After two years, Vinny was ready to cut his hair. Kids laughed at him because his hair was long like a girl's. Unfortunately, Vinny became very sick and doctors discovered he had bone cancer. Now Vinny will need his own wig, but he remains positive.

14. How long did Vinny grow his hair for?

15. Why did kids laugh at Vinny?

Review Test 2 (Units 5-8)Vocabulary Check Up

A. Write the right word in each blank. There are two extra words.

difference borrow violent passions awesome

1. Mr. Hyde was dangerous and _____.
2. Oscar wants to _____ the book to find out what happens at the end.
3. Blogs let people write about their _____.

B. Choose the correct answers.

4. Writing a blog gives writer the chance to _____ their love of writing.

- a. explore b. kill c. surprise

5. Dr. Jekyll works in his _____ all day.

- a. laboratory b. opportunity c. personality

Comprehension Check Up

C. Read the following passages and choose the correct answers.

[6~8]

The Internet is great place for writers to share ideas. ① Starting a blog on the internet can be rewarding. Blogs provide freedom for writers. ② Many bloggers write about their hobbies or travels. Some write about their daily lives. A writer's work should be fun to read. When a writer has a lot of followers, advertisers begin to notice. ③ Bloggers can make a lot of money working with advertisers.

6. What is the passage mainly talking about?
 - a. Why blogs are good for writers
 - b. How to become an advertiser
 - c. Different ways to get followers
7. Which is NOT true about the passage?
 - a. Bloggers can ask followers to write for them.
 - b. Bloggers can write about their lives on a blog.
 - c. Bloggers can make money working with advertisers.

8. What is the best place for the sentence below?

They want the opportunity to reach those followers.

- a. ①
- b. ②
- c. ③

[9~11]

Robin Hood was a ① (freedom / science fiction / hero) for the people of England. The stories tell us that he took things from bad rich people and gave them to poor people. However, some people say that Robin Hood was not a ② (peaceful / real / violent) person. They say he was just a legend. Other people believe that many things a man named Robert Hood did matches the stories about Robin Hood. Robert Hood ③ (shared / insisted / fought) against the King of England's army and had to hide in the woods. This is how he became a robber.

9. Who was Robin Hood?

- a. A real man
- b. A hero
- c. A king

10. Who was Robert Hood?

- a. A bad rich person
- b. A legend
- c. A real man

11. What is the correct answer for each number? Choose the best answer.

- ① a. freedom b. science fiction c. hero
- ② a. peaceful b. real c. violent
- ③ a. shared b. insisted c. fought

D. Read the following passages and write the correct answers.

[12~13]

Katie tells Oscar about an interesting book. There are two characters called Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Dr. Jekyll is a quiet scientist. One day, he makes and drinks a potion. It turns him into Mr. Hyde. Mr. Hyde is a very dangerous man. In the end, Dr. Jekyll could not control Mr. Hyde. ① (had to / Finally, / Dr. Jekyll / something / about Mr. Hyde. / do) Oscar wants to read the book to find out what happens.

12. How did Dr. Jekyll turn into Mr. Hyde?

13. Unscramble sentence ①.

[14~15]

The Time Machine is a very famous book. It is about a creative man who thinks it is possible to build a machine to travel through time. Using a time machine, he travels many years into the future. There, he finds friendly creatures called the Eloi who help him. The future seems like paradise. But then his time machine gets stolen by the Morlocks who live underground. He has some scary adventures trying to get his time machine back.

14. Who are the Eloi?

15. What problem does the man have in the future?

Review Test 3 (Units 9-12)Vocabulary Check Up

A. Write the right word in each blank. There are two extra words.

forever upper typically birth contrast

1. Babies are about 50 cm at _____.
2. It is possible with better healthcare, people could live _____.
3. Children _____ grow more in spring and summer.

B. Choose the correct answers.

4. What is another word for a hundred years?
a. a century b. a maximum c. a stage
5. What is a problem that shortens lifespans?
a. techniques b. diseases c. growth

Comprehension Check Up

C. Read the following passages and choose the correct answers.

[6~8]

Today, the average lifespan for women is just over 72 years. ① A hundred years ago, the lifespan was only 34 years. This shows the advances in medical science. ② Now, people understand that avoiding diseases is important. They have learned more about healthy lifestyles. ③ And when a disease appears, modern medicine help most people get better.

6. What is the passage mainly talking about?
a. Diseases are killing many people.
b. People are living longer than before.
c. Women usually live longer than men.
7. Which is NOT true about the passage?
a. The lifespan was much shorter a hundred years ago.
b. People know more about healthy lifestyles now.
c. Men typically have longer lifespans than woman.

8. What is the best place for the sentence below?

For men, the average is just over 68.

- a. ①
- b. ②
- c. ③

[9~11]

A recent study found that people can be divided into three groups of tasters. These groups are non-tasters, medium-tasters, and super-tasters. The difference between the three kinds of tasters is the number of taste buds on a person's ① (height / tongue / importance). Non-tasters have about 96 taste buds, while super-tasters have about 425. Super-tasters are more ② (sensitive / average / equal) to a certain kind of bitter ③ (stage / square / chemical). Foods like grapefruit, chocolate, and coffee have a lot of it in them.

9. How many different groups of tasters are there?

- a. One
- b. Two
- c. Three

10. What is the difference between the people in the different groups?

- a. The number of taste buds
- b. The bitter chemical
- c. The age

11. What is the correct answer for each number? Choose the best answer.

- | | | |
|----------------|------------|---------------|
| ① a. height | b. tongue | c. importance |
| ② a. sensitive | b. average | c. equal |
| ③ a. stage | b. square | c. chemical |

D. Read the following passages and write the correct answers.

[12~13]

Children grow differently at different stages of their lives. When they are born, they grow between 18 and 25 cm during their first year. In the second year, they grow a little less. The next stage of growth is more regular and lasts for about seven years. During some months, their growth may be faster. During middle school, growth speeds up again. ① (two / This stage / lasts / years. / about / of life)

12. When do children grow the most during their lives?

13. Unscramble sentence ①.

[14~15]

The lungs are very important organs in your body. Your lungs are in your chest and consist of two parts. They are responsible for sending oxygen into the blood. As we breathe in, our chest will expand, and our lungs will take in oxygen. You breathe around fifteen times every minute, so your lungs never stop working. You need to keep your lungs healthy and powerful to live a long and happy life.

14. Where are your lungs?

15. What do the lung do?

Review Test 4 (Units 13-16)Vocabulary Check Up

A. Write the right word in each blank. There are two extra words.

possibility gather unit outcome accept

1. An inch is a(n) _____ of measurement.
 2. At first, many people did not _____ the new system of measurement.
 3. Probability is the _____ of something happening.
- B. Choose the correct answers.
4. Can you _____ the probability of rolling a 3 on a dice?
a. fit b. guess c. drop
 5. The metric system was developed _____ the French Revolution.
a. during b. resulting c. holding on to

Comprehension Check Up

C. Read the following passages and choose the correct answers.

[6~8]

① Big data is big business today. Companies collect big data from most online activities. ② Data is collected each time you go online to play. This data tells how long you played, players you talked with online, and even how many times you played that day. The company collects data from everyone who plays. They use this data to make their games better. ③

6. What is the passage mainly talking about?
a. What companies use data for
b. How companies collect data
c. Who companies sell their data to
7. Which is NOT true about the passage?
a. Big data is collected from online activities.
b. Data is collected when people play games online.
c. Companies make data to sell to users.

8. What is the best place for the sentence below?

Think about a video game you like.

- a. ①
- b. ②
- c. ③

[9~11]

Symmetry means something that has the exact same parts facing each other or around a center line. Honeycombs have wallpaper symmetry. This means the shapes in the ① (pattern / unit / population) are repeated over a surface. Bees use wax to make tiny hexagons that fit perfectly together. This creates the most room to ② (accept / waste / store) honey. Peacocks are an example of bilateral symmetry. Peacocks, the male birds, have symmetry in their body shape. It is also in the pattern on their tail feathers. It makes them very ③ (helpful / attractive / basic) to female birds.

9. What shapes do bees make?

- a. Squares
- b. Hexagons
- c. Circles

10. How does symmetry help peacocks?

- a. It makes the female birds like them.
- b. It helps them look for food.
- c. It creates space between the feathers.

11. What is the correct answer for each number? Choose the best answer.

- | | | |
|--------------|---------------|---------------|
| ① a. pattern | b. unit | c. population |
| ② a. accept | b. waste | c. store |
| ③ a. helpful | b. attractive | c. basic |

D. Read the following passages and write the correct answers.

[12~13]

Some events cannot be predicted. However, you can use math to find out the probability of different events. For example, since a dice has six sides, there is a one-in-six chance that you will roll a 3. If you and a friend play Rock, Paper, Scissors, there is three-out-of-nine chance that you will win. Another example is the chance of getting hit by lightning us one in 12,000. ① (to figure out / use / Experts / math / probability. / this)

12. What is the probability of winning a game of Rock, Paper, Scissors?

13. Unscramble sentence ①.

[14~15]

Before the metric system was developed, people used the Imperial system. They used their body parts to measure things. The width of a thumb equaled an inch. King Henry I said the distance between his nose to his thumb was a yard. However, all of these things could have different lengths depending on the person. Therefore, a team of scientists in France created the metric system. The basic unit of this system is the meter. Today, it is used around the world except for three countries.

14. What system did people use before the metric system?

15. Which body part did people use to measure an inch?
