Last Saturday, it was warm and pleasant. My classmates and I went to a city museum. We visited a new exhibition called "The Iceman." It was very interesting to learn the story of the Iceman. In 1991, two students discovered the frozen body of a hunter. They named him "Ötzi." Ötzi lived more than five thousand years ago. He was very well-preserved. He also had a knife with him. Scientists think he used the knife to fight and that he probably died in battle.

Alex, Nicole, and Vickie wanted to earn some money to buy Christmas presents. "There is lots of snow on the ground. Maybe people will hire us to shovel the snow on their driveways and sidewalks," said Vickie. The three friends went to all the houses and put a flier in everyone's mailbox. First, Mrs. Jones hired the kids to shovel snow from her driveway. She said, "I have twin baby girls. I am too busy to shovel the snow myself." Then, Mrs. Smith hired them. She said, "I am very old, and the snow is too heavy for me to move." Then, Mr. Lee hired them. He said, "My driveway is too big to shovel all by myself. Can you help me?" The kids worked very hard shoveling snow. They earned a total of $30. Now they could buy wonderful Christmas presents for their friends and families.
