My Family

There are three daughters in my family. I'm the oldest, and I'm a lot like our dad. He and I are both make new friends easily, and we love to laugh. We're also both interested in flying. Dad's an airplane mechanic, and I am studying to be a pilot. My sister Jean is like our mom. They're very serious, and very intelligent. They're also shy—the opposite of dad and me! Our youngest sister, Gail, is a little like both our parents. And she's really good at sports, especially baseball. Gail pitches for her team. They're so good, they even travel to play teams in Japan and Korea. She's the only daughter who's into sports. It's nice having such different kinds of people in the same family.

Erica: Hey, I wasn't here for our last two classes. What did I miss?
Hyunwoo: Not much. I'm curious—why do you miss class so often? Is anything wrong?
Erica: No, I'm just so busy these days. I'm taking five classes and working 25 hours a week. Sometimes I'm too tired for class in the morning.
Hyunwoo: Wow. Why are you taking so many classes?
Erica: Because I set a goal to graduate this December instead of next June. It'll save a whole term's tuition fees.
Hyunwoo: That's a good goal. But you shouldn't work so hard. Do you ever have time to rest?
Erica: Not really. Maybe I should quit one of my classes. What do you think I should do?
Hyunwoo: I think you should quit your job, or work fewer hours.

1. Erica often does not attend class. true false

2. She has a full-time job. true false

3. She wants to finish school a term early. true false
