

Level 1-1

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse

Aesop

Retold by J. Randolph Lewis
Illustrated by Christina Forshay

WORD LIST

arrive

The bee arrives at the flower.

- The mice arrive in the town.

better

This score is better.

- “But my home is better.”

chair

This is a chair.

- The mice run under a chair.

cheese

This cheese tastes great.

- There is cheese.

cookie

This cookie is for you.

- There are cakes and cookies.

country

I want to go to the country.

- The other mouse lives in the country.

danger

Danger! Don't go near him!

- "You can have your delicious food in danger."

delicious

The candy looks delicious.

- There is lots of delicious food.

dining room

This is a dining room.

- The mice go to the dining room.

friend

They are friends.

- He meets his friend, the country mouse.

hello

She says, "Hello."

- "Hello, my friend," says the town mouse.

house

This is my house.

- The mice go to a big house.

mice

I see two mice.

- The dogs see the two mice.

more

There are more mice coming.

- “I have more good food,” says the town mouse.

mouse

This is a mouse.

- One mouse lives in the town.

noise

She can't sing. She just makes noise.

- Then there is a big noise.

other

Sit in the other chair.

- The other mouse lives in the country.

place

Home, school, and here are all places.

- “I will show you a good place.”

poor

He is poor but happy.

- “I will eat my poor food in safety.”

safety

You can wear this for safety.

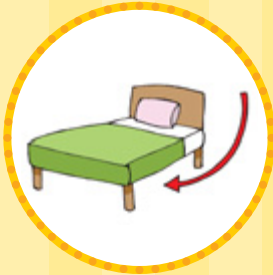

- “That’s OK. I will eat my poor food in safety.”

shout

He shouts a lot.

- “Run! Run!” shouts the town mouse.

under

The arrow points under the bed.

- The mice run under a chair.

welcome

She welcomes him.

- “Welcome to the country,” says the country mouse.

wonderful

He thinks it is wonderful.

- “It is wonderful!” says the country mouse.